

Certified Fund Raising Executive
The credential for fundraising professionals

CONTINUING EDUCATION POINTS TRACKER

CFRE International has developed this form as a way for you to quickly track (and keep in your files!) a record of the continuing education sessions you have attended. Simply check the boxes next to the sessions you attended and, where necessary, fill in the session title. At the end of the conference, add up the total number of hours. Keep this sheet and you will be ready to complete your application form. All of the session slots listed are eligible for continuing education points on your CFRE application for initial certification and/or recertification. Sessions not listed here are not eligible for points.

Activity Organizer: AFP Western PA Chapter
Title of Activity: AFP WPA Chapter Educational Meeting
Names of Presenter(s): Andrew Watt, FInstF, President and CEO, AFP

Dates and Location: June 20, 2013 – Rivers Club– Pittsburgh, PA

Date: June 20, 2013

Session: 12:30 - 1:30 pm (1 hr)

Andrew Watt, FInstF, is president and chief executive officer of the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP), the professional association of individuals responsible for generating philanthropic support for nonprofit organizations.

AFP is the largest community of fundraising professionals in the world and has 30,000 members in more than 200 chapters. In his role, Andrew serves on the board of directors for AFP, the AFP Foundation for Philanthropy and the AFP Foundation for Philanthropy-Canada, and also leads the association's professional staff in Arlington, Va.; Toronto, Ontario and Mexico City.

Andrew joined AFP as vice president for international development in 2006 and was promoted to chief programs officer in 2008, where he led the Membership and Professional Advancement Divisions of AFP. He also served on the AFP Executive Team that was responsible for the day-to-day operational decisions of the association.

From 1993-2005, Andrew was employed by the Institute of Fundraising in the United Kingdom, a professional membership organization for fundraising professionals. He served in several capacities there, ultimately as deputy chief executive. In 2006, Andrew was made an Honorary Fellow of the Institute of Fundraising in recognition of his extraordinary service to the profession.

Andrew has been a strong proponent of the value of the nonprofit community and fundraising throughout his career. Viewing nonprofits as a critical interface between the public and government, he has long emphasized the importance of forging strong consensus-based coalitions both within the philanthropic community and between the public and private sectors that demonstrate the value and impact of charities and their work.

Andrew has served as both a volunteer and board member of many nonprofit organizations. He is currently chairman of the American Friends of Winchester College and an adjunct faculty member of St. Mary's University of Minnesota where he teaches on the globalization of philanthropy.

Total number of contact hours attended

(number of contact hours = number of Education points)

Be sure to add these to your online application